CHARGED WITH CARRYING WEAPON PEROVICH FINED

REDUCTION IS MADE IN CRIME AND FINE INFLICTED IN JUSTICE COURT

For obvious reasons the charge of assault with intent to kill against William Perovich was reduced in the justice court yesterday and a lesser charge of carrying a concealed weapon inserted. Upon the latter charge Perovich was found guilty and a fine of $68.50 was exacted.

Perovich was arrested about two weeks ago after firing three shots at Milo Predonovich. The trouble, it is stated, grew out of a transaction between the two wherein it is charged that Perovich paid Predonovich $20 that he might secure a position in one of the mines. Predonovich presented himself as speaking for one of the shift bosses. It is stated that after the money was paid the job was forthcoming.

The case, after several continuances that the defendant might procure witnesses, was called in the justice court yesterday and the judgment was pronounced late in the afternoon.
